I wonlet if the rich man prays—
And how his morning prayer is said:
He'll ask for health and length of days—
But dues he pray for "daily bread?"

When by his door, in posture meck, He sees the poor man waiting stand, With sunken eye, and care-worn cheek, To beg employment from his hand,

And when he tells his pitcous tale Of sickly wife and children small-Of rents that rise, and crops that fail, And troubles that the poor befall;-

I wonder if the rich man's thought, Mounts free, as nature's hymn, to Heaven. In gratitude, that happier lot By Providence to him is given.

And does his beart exult to know He, too, like Heaven, hath power to give? To strengthen weakness, soften woe, And bid hope's dying lamp revive?

And when around his gladsome hearth A troop of friends the rich man greet, And songs of joy and smiles of mirth Add grace to flattery's homage sweet -

I wonder if his fancy sees A vision of those wretched homes, Where want is wrestling with disease, And scarce a ray of comfort comes"

O world! how strange thy lots are given-Life's aim how rarely understoo And men-how far estranged from heaven, If heaven require—a brotherhood!

A. Act to exempt certain persons from Enrollment in the Armies of the Confederate States.

"SEC. 2. The Congress of the Confederate States America do enact, That all persons who shall sheld to be unfit for military service underrules to be prescribed by the Secretary of War; all in the service or employ of the Confederate States; all judicial and executive officers of the Confedall judicial and executive officers of the Confederate or State Governments; the members of both houses of Congress, and of the Legislatures of the several States, and their respective officers, all clerks of the officers of the State and Confederate governments, allowed by law; all engaged in carrying the mails; all ferrymen on post routes; all pilots and persons engaged in the marine service, and in actual service on river and railroad routes of transportation; telegraphic carrying the mails; all ferrymen on post routes; all pilots and persons engaged in the marine service, and in actual service on river and railroad routes of transportation; telegraphic carrying the mails; all ferrymen on post routes. vice, and in actual service on fiver and railroad routes of transportation; telegraphic operators and ministers of religion in the regular discharge of ministerial duties; all engaged in working iron mines, furnaces and foundries; all journeymen printers actually employed in printing newspa-pers; all presidents and professors of colleges, and all teachers having as many as twenty schol-ars; superintendents of public hospitals, lunatic asylume, and the regular nurses and attendants therein and the teachers employed in the institu-tion for the deaf and dumb and blind; in each anotherary store now established and discounts. apothecary store now established and doing busiaponecary store now established and doing business, one apothecary in good standing, who is a practical druggist; superintendents and operatives in wool and cotton factories, who may be exempted by the Secretary of War, shall be and are hereby exempted from military service in the armies of the Confederate States. [Approved April 21st, 1862."]

II. By the above act of Congress, the following classes of persons are exempt from enrolla for military service:

Justices of the peace; sheriffs and deputy sheriffs; clerks and deputy clerks allowed by law; masters and commissioners in chancery; district sand state atterneys; atterneys general; postmasters and deputy postmasters and foreigners who have not acquired domicil in the Confederate States.

States.

III. The following are not exempt:
Militia officers not in actual service; persons exempted by State Isws, but not by the above act; foreigners who have acquired domicil in the Confederate States.

IV. No person other than those expressly named or properly implied in the above act, can be exempted, except by furnishing a substitute, exempt from military service, in conformity with regulations; and such exemption is valid only so long as the said substitute is legally exempt.

X .- SUBSTITUTES.

X.—Substitutes.

18. When any person liable to military duty under this act, but not yet mustered into service in any company, desires to furnish a substitute, he shall report himself with the substitute to the cemusadant of a camp of instruction; and if the substitute be lawfully exempt from military duty, and on examination by a Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon, he pronounced sound and in all respects fit for military service, he may be accepted and carolled; and the person furnishing such substitute may be discharged by the commandant of the camp. But no substitute shall be entitled to transportation or other allowance at the orpease of the Government, until so accepted and sprolled.

XI.—Examples.

XI.—EXEMPTIONS.

Al.—Exemptions.

19. Persons claiming exemption from military duty under this act, shall be required by the enrolling officer to make oath that they are lawfully exempt, and shall be furnished by him with a certificate of such exemption.

Superintendents and operatives in weel and cotton factories engaged in manufacturing such cloth as may be used by the army for dothing, or material of any kind used in the service of the Canteserate and State Governments, will be armpt, not exceeding, however, in any one establishment the number necessary to its efficient operation.

Borolling officers will report weekly to Licut.
Colonel E. D. Blake, at Knexville.

All serollments will be made upon blanks (furnished the encolling officers) in duplicate. Duplicate rolls of all nersons between the agent of 18 and 30 will be forwarded to this office. Both of those between the ages of 35 and 55 to be forwarded to the Adjutant General of the State.

A roll will be made by the enrolling officers, and forwarded to this office, of all persons within their districts between the ages of 18 and 35 who may be exempt under the first section of the act of Congress, "to exempt certain persons from enrollment for service in the armies of the Confederate States," Accompanying this roll will be the affidavit of the person that he is exempted by law. The affidavits will be numbered and referred to by numbers in the column of remarks, opposite the name of the person exempted.

No enrolling officer can exempt any person on the ground of physical disability, but such person, if able to travel, must proceed to Knoxville, and be examined by the Surgeon expressly appointed for that purpose. In case the person is confined to his bed, or his life might be endangered by traveling, a physician must make affidavit to that effect and present it to the enrolling officer, and the person must make a written affidavit that he will present himself to the enrolling officer as soon as he shall be well enough.

Persons discharged from the service are not exempt, except by reason of having furnished a substitute, and their discharge (signed by the commanding officer of the regiment, or commandent of a camp of instruction) must state that they were discharged by reason of having furnished a substitute.

As seen as a person shall be enrolled, the enrolling officer will furnish him with a transcript from the muster roll, giving his description and enrollment, and order him to report at the camp of instruction at Knoxville. This transcript presented to any Quartermaster will enable the person to get his transportation.

Persons enrolled, who fail to report in a reasonable time will be treated as description and enrollment, and order him to report in shis name, age, &c., the enrolling officer will call upon the should not be accounted to a proven the person, who will, when it becomes to be enrolled, or sha to be enrolled, or shall refuse to furnish his name, age, &c., the enrolling officer will call upon the sheriff to arrest such person or persons, who will, when it becomes necessary, apply to the commanding officer of the department for such military force as he may require. Should the sheriff fail in the execution of this duty, the enrolling officer will report the fact immediately to the superintendent of recruiting service, or commandant of camp of instruction, at Knoxville.

MASONIC FEMALE INSTITUTE,

Rev. I. N. Bradshaw, Principal. THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITU

THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITUtion will commence on Monday, the 1st day of September next, under the direction and professorship of the Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, who has had charge of it for the last ten mouths.

The Trustees, in making this announcement, would most especially appeal to all citizens who have daughters to educate, to send them to this institution. Mr. Bradshaw has had charge of the school for the last ten months, during which time he has rendered ample, and, we might say, universal satisfaction to the Trustees, patrons and pupils. There never was a better time for men to educate their daughters than now—money is plenty—everything a farmer raises bears two prices, and the Tuition to this School is the same that it was when everything was at low figures.
What excuse can there be now for a man who neglects to educate his daughter? None. Because here, in Cleveland, a healthy locality, we have an Institution, with an excellent Instructor, aided by a sufficient corps of Assistants, to instruct all who may favor it with their patronage.
Let one and all put their shoulder to the wheel struct all who may favor it with their patronage. Let one and all put their shoulder to the wheel and build up such a School as will be of incalculable benefit to us and an honor to our town.—We have the building and we have the teachers—the balance devolves upon the people. We hope they may nobly perform their duty.

The Trustees are thankfal to the citizens for the patronage bestowed upon Mr. Bradshaw heretofore, and are glad to know that under his administration, the Institution has not lost any of the enviable reputation it sustained in "the better days of the Republic."
